

NACDEP Sessions 2019

Title	Authors	Abstract	Moderator
Monday, June 10 9:00-10:30am
Youth Development/Windsor A: Growing Farmers, Horticulturalists,	Tim Sayre, Extension Agent with WVU Extension in the Families and Community Development	After five years of teaching elementary students how to grow their own food,	Russ Garner
Youth Development/Windsor A: Youth Voices in Food System Relocalization:	Students from Mountain Heritage High School (Yancey County); Eric Klein, Seed Saving Club	This year, Yancey County Schools students started a seed saving club and grew food for	Russ Garner
Human Capacity Building-Youth/Windsor A: Building Resiliency through School	Dr. Maria Portelos-Romero Family and Consumer Sciences Agent University of Florida IFAS	Awareness in the value of growing your own food increased with the Healthy Hunger-	Russ Garner
Remote and Home-based Work/Cherokee: Utah's Rural Online	Paul Hill, Utah State University (joining remotely); Russell Goodrich, Utah State University	USU Extension created the Rural Online Initiative (ROI) pilot program to help people	Suzette Barta
Remote and Home-based Work/Cherokee: Growing Homegrown	Jody A. Gale, Extension Area Faculty, Utah State University, Don E. Albrecht, Director, Western	The Area Sector Analysis Process (ASAP) is a planning program, designed by Extension,	Suzette Barta
Remote and Home-based Work/Cherokee: Interdisciplinary	Natasha M. Parks, Family & Consumer Sciences Agent III	Home-based businesses are the fastest growing form of start-ups; despite this fact,	Suzette Barta
Workshop/Windsor2: Removing the Evil From Wicked Problems “ How Naming	Juliet Daniels, University of Wyoming Extension, Southeast Area Community Development	This session will explore the nature of successfully naming and framing wicked	Brian Raison
Community Resilience and Sustainability/Victoria: Extension	Ramona Madhosingh-Hector, University of Florida/IFAS Extension	Sustainability education is an important program area for Extension agents who	Crystal Tyler-Mackey
Community Resilience and Sustainability/Victoria: Eyes on the	Dr. Mary Lou Addor, NC State University Extension	The consequences of unmanaged urbanization are significant to human and	Crystal Tyler-Mackey
Community Resilience and Sustainability/Victoria: Lead & Feed:	Hannah Wooten, UF/IFAS Extension Seminole Co., Sustainable Ag & Food Systems, Liz Felter,	Farms in urbanizing counties face unique challenges making long- term sustainability	Crystal Tyler-Mackey
Community Development Tools/Alexander: Understanding and	Radha Jagalamudi with IMPLAN: Economic Impact Analysis for Planning, Nancy Bowen-Ellzey, Ohio	Demonstration and application of IMPLAN as a tool to conduct economic impact	Jackie Miller
Community Development Tools/Alexander: Building Voter Capacity	Kristin Higgins, Program Associate at University of Arkansas System Division of Agriculture	A majority of states have a ballot initiative or referendum process. These perennial	Jackie Miller
Business and Economic Development/Swannanoa: Supporting	Jared Reynolds, UNH Extension	Rural communities face challenges retaining and attracting entrepreneurs. Today's	Meghan Thoreau
Business and Economic Development/Swannanoa: Translating	John Bennett, Extension educator, UMN & Jennifer Hawkins, Extension Edcator, UMN	Rural business succession is a critical economic development issue. Recent	Meghan Thoreau
Business & Economic Development/Swannanoa: Building a	Julianne Dunn, Instructor - Economic Development; Stacey McCullough, , Assistant	Combining the values of the business retention and expansion program and the	Meghan Thoreau
REAL Talk/Berkeley: Rural & Urban: Better Together, Despite Our	Kristin Feierabend, Area Agent for Urban Programs, North Carolina Cooperative Extension	Amidst a changing demographic and political landscape, we are constantly	Lori Ivey
Monday, June 10 10:45am-12:15pm
Infrastructure & Community Health/Windsor A: Estimating Health	Laura Brown, Community and Economic Development Educator, Associate Extension	Communities around the country are recognizing the value of bicycle, pedestrian	Steve Turner

NACDEP Sessions 2019

CANCELLED	Shane Barton		Cancelled session
Infrastructure & Community Health/Windsor A: Enhancing Placemaking/Cherokee: An Incremental Approach to Downtown Revitalization	Jayoung Koo, Assistant Extension Professor, University of Kentucky; Sherri Broderick, Ryan Sandwick, Community and Economic Development Initiative of Kentucky (CEDIK)	Gallatin Health Collaboration for Better Health and Safety partnered with a Many cities have a downtown master plan and struggle with how to move forward	Steve Turner Gina Taylor
Placemaking/Cherokee: Using Mapping Technology to Capture Community	Penny Whitman, Field Specialist, Community & Economic Development, UNH Cooperative	Building a positive regional identity can be challenging for communities that don't	Gina Taylor
Placemaking/Cherokee: Connecting Downtowns & Trails for Economic	Shannon Rogers (State Specialist & Associate Extension Professor, UNH Cooperative Extension),	Natural resources can be a community's greatest asset. Our local economies grow	Gina Taylor
Workshop/Windsor B: Skill-building Using County Health Rankings &	Aliana Havrilla Department of Population Health Sciences, University of Wisconsin, Community	County Health Rankings & Roadmaps produces interactive content in order to	Rebekka Dudensing
Civic Engagement/Victoria: Developing Inclusive Community Engagement for	Melinda Habecker, Dane County Extension, University of Wisconsin	Local officials want to learn more about what issues their citizens are concerned	Melinda Grismer
Civic Engagement/Victoria: Increasing Civic Engagement in the Digital Age	Charlotte Narjes, Special Projects Manager, University of Nebraska-Lincoln; Rebecca Vogt,	Increasing civic engagement in communities can be a challenge as traditional	Melinda Grismer
Civic Engagement/Victoria: Listening to Your Hometown through 16,000+ Voices	Bo Beaulieu (Asst. Ext. Director), Maria Wiltse (Program Coordinator), Tanya Hall (Regional	This presentation provides insights gained from a large-scale, systematic research	Melinda Grismer
Youth Development and Education/Alexander: Youth Community	Jaime Menon, K-State Research and Extension, Community Vitality Specialist and Kansas PRIDE	Youth Community Perceptions is a community evaluation and assessment	Trudy Rice
Youth Development and Education/Alexander: Your Money, Your	Dr. Matthew Ulmer - State Specialist with the Alabama Cooperative Extension System; Heidi	The Your Money, Your Life Program is a three part educational program designed to	Trudy Rice
Youth Development and Education/Alexander: Capturing the Value of the Horse to Enhance Individual	Lorraine Garkovich, Professor Emeritus, University of Kentucky	Extension has overlooked the potential for innovative programs, new partnerships, and significant individual and community	Trudy Rice
Food Systems/Swannanoa: Share Grounds: Value Chain Development	Angela Gardner, Program Associate University of Arkansas Cooperative Extension Service and Dr.	Demand for local food remains a national trend but barriers, such as limited resources	Hannah Dankbar
Food Systems/Swannanoa: Cultivating Farm to Institution in Michigan: Extension's Role as the "Boots on the Ground in Statewide Work"	Garrett Ziegler, Community Food Systems Educator, MSU Extension, Colleen Matts Farm to Institution Specialist, MSU Center for Regional Food Systems	This presentation will detail the substantial role that MSU Extension has taken in moving forward farm to institution work in Michigan. Participants will learn the various	Hannah Dankbar
Food Systems/Swannanoa: Food Democracy: Public Participation in New	Casey Porter, University of New Hampshire; Catherine M. Ashcraft, UNH	Food policy councils (FPCs) are one way to increase stakeholder and citizen	Hannah Dankbar
REAL Talk/Berkeley: Community Co-Creation - What is Extension's Role?	Ramona Madhosingh Hector, Urban Sustainability Agent; Linda Seals, Community Resource	Extension educators walk a fine line between education and advocacy but the	John Phillips
Monday, June 10 2:30-4:00pm
Economic Development & Evaluation/Windsor A: Collecting and	Deborah Tootle, Assoc Professor, Iowa State Univ.; Walt Whitmer, Senior Ext Educ., Penn State	The National CRED Indicators Team will discuss recent efforts to improve the	Jody Gale

NACDEP Sessions 2019

Economic Development & Evaluation/Windsor A: Determining the	Michael Dougherty, West Virginia University Extension Service	This research examines what difference comprehensive planning makes in a	Jody Gale
Economic Development & Evaluation/Windsor A: A Longitudinal	Dr. Stacey McCullough; Assistant Director of Community and Economic Development	Comprehensive, longitudinal evaluation of long-standing programs is critical to insure	Jody Gale
The Opioid Crisis & Health/Cherokee: Fostering Health, Wellness, and a	Libby Carnahan, UF IFAS Extension Pinellas County Florida Sea Grant Agent; Brian Niemann,	The Weedon Warrior Program, offered bi-monthly in cooperation with the Bay Pines	Charlotte Narjes
The Opioid Crisis & Health/Cherokee: Opioid Crisis Response--Capacity Building	Mark Skidmore, North Central Regional Center for Rural Development and	The opioid crisis affects millions, causing immeasurable suffering. With responsive	Charlotte Narjes
The Opioid Crisis & Health/Cherokee: Community Meetings on the Rural Opioid	Devon Meadowcroft, Graduate Student, Oklahoma State; Brian Whitacre, Professor and	The rural opioid crisis is an important topic for community development professionals	Charlotte Narjes
Workshop/Windsor B: Zone!: The Land Use Game	Anna Haines PhD, Professor and Director, Center for Land Use Education, University of Wisconsin,	In this session, participants play a fast-paced and fun game focused on planning and	Adam Hodges
Community & Civic Engagement/Victoria: Wildland Fire: The Need for Collaboration	Laurel Kas, NC State University Extension Forestry	The Association of Natural Resource Extension Professionals' (ANREP) recently	Jaime Rae Walker
Community & Civic Engagement/Victoria: Using a Community-based Model to	Molly Donovan University of New Hampshire Community and Economic Development State	This model teaches engagement techniques while being embedded in communities	Jaime Rae Walker
Community & Civic Engagement/Victoria: Building Collective Capacity One	Lara Milligan, Natural Resources Agent, University of Florida; Ramona Madhosingh-Hector, Urban	UF/IFAS Extension started a new community engagement program,	Jaime Rae Walker
Facilitation & Engagement/Alexander: EmpowerU! Empowering citizens to	Angela Gupta, University of Minnesota Extension Educator, Forestry	This presentation showcases a new flipped classroom course to help empower citizens	Jared Reynolds
Facilitation & Engagement/Alexander: Building a Facilitation Community of	Donna Rewalt, County Director, NC Cooperative Extension, Durham County; Michael T. Davis,	Durham County NC collaborated internally to address a critical organizational and	Jared Reynolds
Facilitation & Engagement/Alexander: Developing a Peer to Peer Learning	Suzanne Cagle, Field Specialist, UNH Cooperative Extension; Kristen Grant, Marine Extension	Development of an ongoing community of practice in group process and facilitation for	Jared Reynolds
Community Assessment/Swannanoa: Kentucky Better Together; County by	Karen Fawcett, Program Coordinator CEDIK; Dan Kahl, PhD, UK Assistant Professor in Community	University of Kentucky Cooperative Extension Service documented Kentucky	Shane Barton
Community Assessment/Swannanoa: Using Ripple Effect Mapping to Evaluate	Dara Bloom, Assistant Professor and Local Foods Extension Specialist, NC State University	Ripple Effect Mapping was conducted with Family and Consumer Science agents and	Shane Barton
Community Assessment/Swannanoa: Lessons from a Three State Program to	Lorie Higgins, Extension Specialist, University of Idaho; Julie Daniels, Area Community	Presenters will share lessons from a three state program to improve and evaluate	Shane Barton
REAL Talk/Berkeley: Growing the Local Food Pie: Increasing Access and Creating	Lisa Chase and Hans Estrin, University of Vermont Extension; Jane Kolodinsky and Weiwei Wang,	Small, diversified farms focused on selling to local markets struggle with profitability,	Hannah Dankbar
Tuesday, June 11 10:00-11:30am
Community Planning/Windsor A: Opportunity Zones: Building Capacity in	Bo Beaulieu, Purdue University, David Ivan, Michigan State University, Priyanka Brunese,	The session highlights the key components of the educational program that a team	Molly Donovan
Community Planning/Windsor A: Prosperous Communities Initiative	Jennifer Nixon, Nebraska Extension Community Vitality Educator, Kim L. Wilson ASLA Professor of	Build the capacity of rural communities to effectively create a more prosperous future:	Molly Donovan
Community Planning/Windsor A: Penn State Extension Land Use Webinars	Peter Wulforth AICP, Extension Educator, Penn State Extension and John Turack, Community	Penn State Extension conducted over 60 Land Use Decision-Making Webinars from	Molly Donovan

NACDEP Sessions 2019

Local Food & Economic Development/Cherokee: 3 Facebook Ads	Dr. James Barnes, Associate Extension Professor, Department of Agricultural Economics,	How can farmers' market managers use Facebook to attract more visitors and	Shannon Rogers
Local Food & Economic Development/Cherokee: Marketing Cooperative Extension Organizations and Extension Local Foods Educational Programs: A Review of Online Practices Across the South	Dr. James Barnes, Associate Extension Professor and Grace Langford, Extension Associate, SRDC, Mississippi State University	How do Cooperative Extension organizations market local foods Extension programs using Twitter, Facebook, and websites? This study examined 25 Cooperative Extension organizations in the South. Results suggest more attention	Shannon Rogers
Local Food & Economic Development/Cherokee: Vacation Vittles	Becky Bowen, Program Manager, CultivateNC, NC State Extension; Susan Jakes, Associate State	CRD and Tourism Specialists at NC State Extension teamed up to pilot a "vacationer-	Shannon Rogers
Workshop/Windsor B: The Rise of Remote Work and What it Means for	Paul Hill, Utah State University (joining remotely); Roberto Gallardo, Purdue University; Panelists:	By eliminating the costs of attracting businesses and new residents, remote work	Juliet Daniels
Diversity & Inclusion/Victoria: The Art of Working with Others: Creative Strategies	Melissa Bond, CEDIK Arts Extension Program Manager, Melody Nall, CEDIK Engagement	University of Kentucky CEDIK collaborated with the Kentucky Department of Public	Penny Whitman
Diversity & Inclusion/Victoria: Parent & Family Advocacy and Support Training:	Donna Rewalt, Community Outreach Coordinator and Angelina Schiavone, Latino Outreach	Parent & Family Advocacy and Support Training (PFAST) and Latino PFAST (LPFAST)	Penny Whitman
Diversity & Inclusion/Victoria: Building Organizational and Leadership Capacity	Mindy Habecker, Natural Resource/Community Development Educator	Similar skills are needed to strengthen many different organizations, yet teaching them	Penny Whitman
Infrastructure/Alexander: Assessing Potential Peak Energy Demand	Eric Romich, Field Specialist, Energy Education College of Food, Agricultural and Environmental	Peak electric demand charges dramatically increase energy cost for many commercial	Ryan Sandwick
Infrastructure/Alexander: Starting (and Growing) a Rural Library Hotspot Lending	Brian Whitacre, Professor and Extension Economist, Oklahoma State	An Extension-led hotspot lending program has become very successful in Oklahoma.	Ryan Sandwick
Infrastructure/Alexander: Water and Agriculture A Community Led Approach	Walt Whitmer, Sr. Extension Associate, PSU Cheryl Burkhart Kriesel, Extension Specialist,	Highlight of the second year of a three state USDA-NIFA funded project designed to	Ryan Sandwick
Economic & Asset Development/Swannanoa: Creating	Alison Davis (UKY CEDIK); Julianne Dunn, Stacey McCullough (Univ of Arkansas Extension); Dave	CREATE BRIDGES is a multi-state initiative to strengthen retail, entertainment,	Patti Bruce
This session moved to Wed. 9:15	Norman Walzer, Senior Research Scholar Center for Governmental Studies, Northern Illinois University and David Ivan, Michigan State	Moved to Wed. at 9-15	Patti Bruce
Economic & Asset Development/Swannanoa: Cooperative	Dr. Charlie French, University of New Hampshire (Extension)	Although land grant and public institutions of higher education play an important	Patti Bruce
REAL Talk/Berkeley: Engaging with Indian Country	Brigid Tuck, University of Minnesota Extension, Rani Bhattacharyya, University of Minnesota	Building working relationships with American Indian communities takes time,	Deborah Tootle
Wednesday, June 12 8:15-9:45am
Diversity & Inclusion/Alexander: Power, Equity, and Agency in Extension	Daniel Eades, Associate Professor and Extension Specialist; Margaret Stout, Associate Professor;	Extension's programs seek to build agency, efficacy, and solidarity of participants;	Walt Whitmer
Diversity & Inclusion/Alexander: Identifying Biases toward the People We	Gina Taylor, Extension Agent/Assistant Director - WVU Extension Service; Gina Wood, Extension	What biases do employees of the WVU Extension Family Nutrition Program have	Walt Whitmer

NACDEP Sessions 2019

Diversity & Inclusion/Alexander: Building Political Ambition: Recruiting the Next	Jennifer Erickson, Dan Hill, Melissa Kono, Victoria Solomon, Kellie Pederson, University of Wisconsin	Why don't many women run for local elected office? Research findings from	Walt Whitmer
Heirs' Property & Housing/Cherokee: Further Exploration of Heirs Property and	Steve Turner, Director, Southern Rural Development Center and John R. Garner,	Landowners who die intestate leave property undivided to an increasing number	Katie Hoffman
Heirs' Property & Housing/Cherokee: "Heirs' Property: Exploring a Southern	Russ Garner, Extension/Research Associate, Southern Rural Development Center	The Southern Rural Development Center (SRDC) has begun a project that explores	Katie Hoffman
Heirs' Property & Housing/Cherokee: Building Capacity: Strengthening	Eric Christianson and Dr. Jon Wolseth, Field Specialists, Iowa State University Extension and	Population decline, demographic changes, and aging housing stock challenge the	Katie Hoffman
Capacity Building & Intertia/Swannanoa: Making Things Happen when Stuck in	Priyanka Brunese, PhD. Purdue Center for Regional Development at Purdue University	This presentation aims to provide a better understanding of the state of collaborative	Dan Kahl
Capacity Building & Intertia/Swannanoa: Energizing Economic and Community	Norman Schwertfeger, MPA, and Richard Moorefield, WVU Regional Extension	Tired of serving a dead community board that struggles for a quorum? This workshop	Dan Kahl
Capacity Building & Intertia/Swannanoa: The Importance of Millennials in the	Meghan Thoreau, Extension Educator, Ohio State University Extension - Community Development	As millennials continue to join the workforce in droves, companies must be	Dan Kahl
Building Government Capacity/Victoria: Increasing Skills and Competencies of	Eric Walcott, Specialist, Michigan State University Extension, John Amrhein, Educator, Michigan	Since 1968, New Commissioner School has been conducted every two years, preparing	Peggy Schlechter
Building Government Capacity/Victoria: Developing a Uniform Chart of Accounts	Notie Lansford, Extension Economist, and Sherri Schieffer, Local Government Specialist, Oklahoma	Rural governments often lack accounting expertise. Result: Inadequate financial	Peggy Schlechter
Business & Economic Development/Victoria: Using an	Neil Linscheid, Extension Educator, University of Minnesota & Jennifer Hawkins, Extension	Many communities are taking steps to attract and retain newcomers. This session	Peggy Schlechter
Community Assessment/Berkeley: In Search of the Representative Sample:	Melinda Grismer and Maria Wiltse, Community & Regional Development Specialist, Purdue Center	A "how to" seminar on organizing and implementing a convenience-sample survey	Dara Bloom
Community Assessment/Berkeley: Evaluating the Economic Contribution of Leadership Programs	Brigid Tuck, Senior Economic Impact Analyst, University of Minnesota Extension	Communities often find themselves competing for resources, rather than collaborating to generate new	Dara Bloom
Economic & Business Development/Berkeley: Financing Essential Services Through Community Supported Enterprises	Norman Walzer, Senior Research Scholar Center for Governmental Studies, Northern Illinois University and David Ivan, Michigan State	Rural communities, especially those experiencing population loss and retirements by aging business owners use innovative approaches in retaining or reopening businesses such as grocery stores key to local quality of life. This presentation	Dara Bloom