1 ABOUT US The conference. Why Sponsor or Exhibit and our Organization

The background of the page features a faded, light-colored image of a church steeple on the left and a brick building on the right. The steeple is tall and slender, topped with a cross. The brick building has several windows and a dark roof. The overall tone is soft and professional.

About the Conference:

The 2020 NACDEP conference comes to Portsmouth, New Hampshire next May 31-June 3, following a fantastic 2019 conference that took place in Asheville, North Carolina. The theme of the 2020 conference, Rich Past, Vibrant Future, recognizes Portsmouth, New Hampshire's and New England's rich history and penchant for innovation. NACDEP members from institutions across the country will come together to learn from each other and build connections. Conference topics will include community engagement, economic development, tourism, creative placemaking, diversity and inclusion, local foods and entrepreneurship.

Why Sponsor or Exhibit?

Sponsors and Exhibitors at the NACDEP Conference will have the opportunity to promote their work at a national venue that will be attended by community development Extension professionals from public institutions around the country. NACDEP will also promote your organization or business through program listing, signage and exhibitor space, while also providing time for our attendees to visit your displays. The conference will be held at the beautiful Sheraton Harborside Hotel in downtown Portsmouth, New Hampshire.

About Our Organization

The National Association of Community Development Extension Professionals (NACDEP) is a non-profit organization that serves as the professional association for extension agents, university educators and researchers in the field of community development. The core of our work centers around cultivating civic leaders; fostering participation in community decision-making; revitalizing downtowns; strengthening businesses, stewarding the natural and cultural resources, and helping communities leverage resources to grow the local and regional economy. NACDEP is governed by elected volunteer board members who represent a broad membership base.
