Coeur d'Alene Visitor's Guide

About Coeur d'Alene

Set on the shores of North Idaho's beautiful Lake Coeur d'Alene, the city of Coeur d'Alene is a vibrant community of about 60,000 people, located only 30 miles east of Spokane Washington – which is the nearest commercial airport (GEG). Coeur d'Alene has been an incorporated town since 1887, initially a mining, logging, and railroad hub for the region, but now is known primarily for its natural beauty.

Climate – In April and May the average high temperature is 48-56 degrees, with an average low of 37-44 degrees. So, plan on layering to deal with changes in temperature and weather conditions.
